

Phone companies should only charge exact amounts of taxes that go to Local/State/Federal govt, and nothing else. All other fees should be built into the monthly charges so one can actually cross-shop providers w/o having to worry about all the little charges. If I have a $40/month plan on Verizon, the total should come out to exactly the same as if I had a $40/month plan on SprintPCS